3. A vacancy in a Committee Chairperson position shall be filled by appointment of the President with input from board of directors and the outgoing Committee Chairperson.

Article XI – Methods of amending bylaws

Bylaws will be changed and updated over time as the needs and the organization of the corporation change. The following are the default steps for approving bylaw changes.

Step 1 – The Board of Directors initiates a change to a general bylaw. The effective date of this change is the date it is approved by the directors.

Step 2 – The bylaw change is placed on the agenda for the next meeting of members.

Step 3 – Members confirm the by-law change – or they amend it and then confirm it – by ordinary resolution.

Step 4 – If the members reject the by-law adopted by the directors, the bylaw change ceases to have effect on the date it is rejected by the members. Alternatively, if the directors fail to submit the bylaw change to the members at the next members meeting, the bylaw change ceases to have effect on the date of the members meeting at which it should have been submitted to the members. In such cases, future bylaw changes that have substantially the same effect as the one rejected or not submitted will not become effective on approval of the directors. They only become come into effect when approved by the members.

Article XII – Procedures of dissolution

In the event of the dissolution of the Association by action of the Board of Directors and approval by a majority of the General Assembly, its assets shall be used to pay current indebtedness. In the event a balance remains after these obligations have been met, it shall be assigned to not for profit educational or charitable organizations, institutions, or projects or assigned to welfare projects or services.
