

We would like to invite you to the IGF 2020 WS #204 Internet Data Protection Under Different Jurisdictions to be held virtually on Friday, November 13th, at 14:00 UTC

On this session, we try to answer some Policy Questions such as:

- Does the current situation allow for Data protection of all Internet end users?
- To what extent, could the development of international norms and principles facilitate common approaches and interoperability of data protection frameworks, and also facilitate international trade and cooperation?

For online participation, please follow the steps of this guideline

#IGF2020

The banner features a light blue background with a dark teal border. At the top, it reads "WS #204" in a bold, sans-serif font, followed by the title "Internet Data Protection Under Different Jurisdictions" in a larger, stylized font. Below the title, the date and time "Friday, 13 November, 2020 - 14:00 to 15:00 UTC" are displayed. The central part of the banner contains five circular portraits of the main speakers, each with their name and affiliation below. From left to right: Sam Lanfranco (Private Sector, WEOG), Farzaneh Badii (Civil Society, Asia-Pacific), Leon Sanchez (Technical Community, GRULAC), Joanna Kulesza (Civil Society, Eastern Europe), and Mohamed El Bekri (Government, Africa). At the bottom, there are three smaller portraits: Natalia Filina (Rapporteur), Nadira AlAraj (Moderator), and Victoria Araj (Rapporteur). The United Nations logo and the IGF 2020 logo are also present at the bottom center.
