

February Report 2019

A. EURALO Monthly Call, Tuesday, 19 February 2019 at 19:00 UTC

EURALO call for the month of February focused on the previous action items as well as ongoing and upcoming ICANN call for public comment.

Action Items:

Olivier MJ Crepin-Leblond (OCL) to follow up on a consensus call to finalize the EURALO Hot topics document. OCL to send the final document with edits to Florian Hule for final review.

A call for comments will be sent for one week to EURALO's mailing list. A vote will be launched.

OCL gave an update with regards to Eastern Europe and Central Asia (EECA) Region - "Alexandra Kulikova and Natalia Mochu to follow up on potential organizations suitable as At Large Structures in Belarus and Moldova."

B. ICANN Policy Development Process - Trial Human Rights Impact Assessments

The Cross-Community Working Party on ICANN and Human Rights (CCWP-HR) recently developed models specifically targeting the ICANN Policy Development Process (PDPs).

The work of developing the new models was undertaken as a further work of the joint workshop that took place at the 2018 Internet Governance Forum in Paris, by the CCWP-HR and NCUC.

In addition, the models cover some of the PDP topics which include -
Community Priority Evaluation as it relates to Public Interest Commitments;
Community Priority Evaluation as it relates to Conflict of Interest;
Community Priority Evaluation as it relates to Language and Accessibility;
Dispute Resolution as it relates to Appeal Mechanism and etc.

The full draft of the trial Human Rights Impact Assessment on the Subsequent Procedures PDP can be perused at
