ICANN At-Large – Staff Due Dilligence

Applicant states: “ISOC Venezuela accepts voluntarily new members (we accepted 30 new members at the moment we send this application). The requisites according to our by laws are: Venezuelan national or living in Venezuela The procedure to accept formally individual members is the following: we request that they become members of ISOC Global and then we request that they become members of the Venezuelan Chapter, however this is because of administrative reasons as this allows us to use the accreditation system of ISOC Global,until now we have not had any request from members wishing to be part of ISOC Venezuela only.”

g. Is the applicant self-supporting? (i.e. will not rely on ICANN for funding).

YES: NO: x

How is the organization funded and what source material or information did you rely on to make your judgment?

The applicant states: Our main sources of financing are the courses we teach and grants which we receive from ISOC global .We will start charging a fee to our members in the upcoming months. One of our members gives us a space in his premises. However, this income will not allow us to attend the ICANN meetings without some sort of help (fellowship).
